Forest Fires. A heavy penalty is attached to the careless handling of camp fires, and all campers are particularly cautioned that camp fires must be totally extinguished before leaving same.

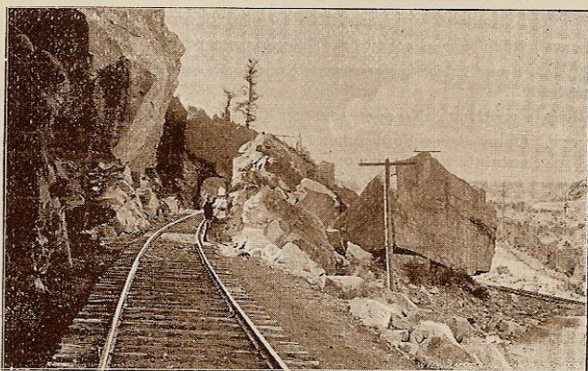

Penalties. Any person violating any of the provisions of the law, whether as principal, agent, clerk, officer or employe, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not less than $25 nor more than $300, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment. The minimum penalty for the killing of any bison, elk or mountain sheep is $300, or imprisonment not to exceed six months. Each separate fish, bird or animal shall be considered a separate offense.

Trap Shooting will be permitted where the officers of the Humane Society are in charge.

Game Wardens and deputies, sheriffs and constables in their respective counties are authorized to open, enter and examine all camps, wagons, cars, stages, tents, packs, warehouses, stores, outhouses, stables, barns, and other places (dwellings actually occupied excepted), boxes, barrels and packages, where they have reason to believe any animal or part thereof is stored or held in violation of law, and are authorized to seize same.

Certificates will be granted by the Game Warden or Fish Commissioner to any member of any society of natural history or other scientific body organized for the study of natural history, permitting the holder in the open season to collect, for strictly scientific purposes, the birds, animal or fish protected by this act. A bond of $100 is required.

The possession or having under control any bird, animal or fish of any of the kinds mentioned. the taking of which is at any time, or at all times, prohibited, shall be considered prima facie evidence of guilt.
